

NCSEA 20th ANNUAL CONFERENCE AWARDS PROGRAM

St. Louis, Missouri

OCTOBER 5, 2012

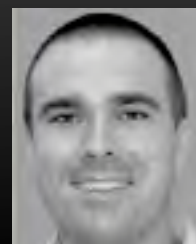

NCSEA Service Award

This Award is presented to an individual who has worked for the betterment of NCSEA to a degree that is beyond the norm of volunteerism. It is given to someone who has made a clear and indisputable contribution to the organization and therefore to the profession.

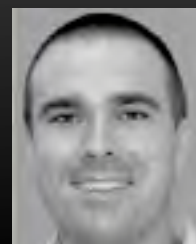

Past Winners

1999	W. Gene Corley Ronald F. Nelson
2000	James T. Slider
2001	Norm Scheel
2002	Fred Cowen
2004	Craig Cartwright
2006	Stephanie Young
2007	Ronald Hamburger
2008	Jon Schmidt
2009	Timothy Mays
2010	Edwin Huston
2011	Marc Barter

This Year's Recipients

2012	Michael Tylk Emile Troup
------	-----------------------------

NCSEA Service Award

Michael Tylk, S.E., SECB

- Mike has 40 years of experience and volunteerism in the structural engineering field
- Retired from his position as a principal in the firm of Tylk Gustafson Reckers Wilson Andrews LLC, he received his Master of Science in Architectural Engineering and his Bachelor of Architecture from the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign
- Mike has served as president, treasurer and director for both NCSEA and SEAIO
- He was the recipient of the NCSEA Robert C. Cornforth Award in 2004
- He also served on the SEAIO Structural Engineers Political Action Committee and the Structural Engineers Foundation
- Mike has been a member of the Chicago Committee on High Rise Buildings and the AISC Code of Standard Practice Committee, as well as many ad-hoc committees and advisory boards for the City of Chicago
- He has been chairing the NCSEA Winter Institute since 2005, covering every aspect of the meeting, from planning and chairing to moving materials cross-country and hosting the social hour

NCSEA Service Award

Emile Troup, P.E.

- Emile is a past president of NCSEA and was the first recipient of the association's Robert C. Cornforth Award in 2001
- He received Lifetime Achievement Awards from AISC in 2003 and the Connecticut Structural Engineers Coalition/ACEC in 2006, as well as the award for Outstanding Civil Engineering Alumnus of Northeastern University in 2004
- Emile is a life member of ASCE and BSCE, as well as a member of the Fire Protection Committee of the Council of American Structural Engineers, the AISC Specification Task Group on Structural Design for Fire Conditions, and the Task Group on QA/QC
- He is a member of SEAMass, a past president of the Boston Society of Civil Engineers, and a past trustee of The Engineering Center Education Trust in Boston
- Emile has served as Coordinator of Vendor Relations for NCSEA for over 10 years, managing and coordinating the trade show for NCSEA's Annual Conference. He is retiring from this position after the 2012 Annual Conference in St. Louis. NCSEA thanks Emile for his tireless efforts on behalf of the association. We are all going to miss that ten-gallon cowboy hat and dry sense of humor.

James Delahay Award

This Award is presented at the recommendation of the NCSEA Code Advisory Committee to recognize outstanding individual contributions towards the development of building codes and standards. It is given in the spirit of its namesake, a person who made a long and lasting contribution to the code development process.

Past Winners

2005	John Hooper
2006	Ronald Hamburger
2007	David Bonneville
2008	Michael Valley
2009	Larry Griffis
	Edwin Huston
2010	Robert Bachman
2011	James Harris

This Year's Recipient

2012	Jim Robinson
------	--------------

James Delahay Award

Jim Robinson

- Jim Robinson is the president of Robinson Associates Consulting Engineers, Inc., a structural engineering firm in Atlanta
- He has served as a board member of the Applied Technology Council, The Structural Engineers Association of Georgia, the American Council of Engineering Companies, the Coalition of American Structural Engineers, and the International Concrete Repair Institute / Georgia.
- Jim currently serves as a member of the NCEES Structural Exam Committee and as a Diplomat of the Board of Forensic Engineering and Technology of the American College of Forensic Examiners, as a member of the ASTM Forensic Engineering Committee, and as a member of the National Academy of Forensic Engineers, where he has been elected Senior Member.
- In the area of Code Development, Jim has served on the Standard Building Code's Wind Load Committee, the International Building Code's Structural Committee, NCSEA's General Engineering Code Advisory Committee, and NCSEA's Special Inspections Code Advisory Committee; and he currently serves on NCSEA's Wind Engineering Code Advisory Committee.

Robert Cornforth Award

This Award is presented to an individual for exceptional dedication and exemplary service to a Member organization and to the profession. Nominees are submitted to the NCSEA Board by the Member Organizations.

Past Winners

2001	Emile Troup
2003	Benjamin Baer Marc Barter
2004	Mike Tylk
2005	Craig Barnes
2009	David Bonneville
2010	William Holmes
2010	Robert B. Johnson
2011	William Lavicka Edwin Huston

This Year's Recipient

2012	Ronald Milmed
------	---------------

Robert Cornforth Award

Ronald Milmed, P.E., SECB

- Ronald Milmed, P.E., SECB, currently enjoying his retirement, was a vice president and principal for Bliss and Nyitray of Miami, Florida, where he worked for over 40 years.
- Milmed is a founding member of FSEA and has served on the Board and two terms as president in 2006 and 2007.
- He was instrumental in forming local FSEA chapters in Ft. Myers, Jacksonville, Orlando, Tampa, Palm Beach and Tallahassee, and he served as president of the South Florida chapter for 2001 and 2002.
- He serves on FSEA's Licensing Committee, chaired the Peer Review Committee and the Bylaw Committee
- He serves as FSEA's liaison to the Florida Board of Professional Engineers
- He was co-chair of FSEA's Peer Review Committee to the Broward County Board of Rules and Appeals.
- He was recently awarded life membership in FSEA in recognition of his contributions.
- Ron is also a past board member of ACI South Florida
- He is a past Board member of NCSEA, where he continues to serve on the Licensing Committee and as FSEA's delegate.

Young Members Scholarship Award

This Award is presented to individuals who wrote an essay on “How can an SEA Young Member Group Benefit Both Young Engineers and the Entire Profession” and provided them with a scholarship in the form of paid registration for the conference.

Heather Anesta, FSEA

Emily Gulielmo, SEAC

Dallin Pedersen, SEAU

